

BORDER COUNTY NOTES.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1904

CARROLL.

The granitoid sidewalk fever is raging in Carrollton.

The teachers' meeting at Hale last week was slimly attended.

The Baptists of Norborne are building a new church edifice.

Mrs. Flora Achillis, aged 23 years, of Egypt township died Monday.

Hailstones as large as hens' eggs fell in Sugartree township Monday.

Thos. N. Hanovan, aged 45 years, died at his home in Norborne Friday.

A county meeting of the Christian church was held at Bosworth last week.

S. B. Casebolt died Friday at the home of his daughter, near DeWitt, aged 82 years.

Wilbur James, aged 25 years, died at his home, near Carrollton, Wednesday.

M. M. Hawkins of Bingham sold eight coming two-year-old mules last week for $1,000.

The Democrat says: "Every house in Carrollton is filled and there is great demand for more."

The Water and Light Co. has brought suit against the city of Carrollton for $6,853.01 for back water and light rental.

Joseph James of Norborne has been adjudged insane by the Carroll county court and ordered sent to the state hospital for insane at St. Joseph.

Monday of last week there was a severe hailstorm, three miles east of Carrollton. Many window panes were demolished and some chickens killed.

A proposition is pending in Carrollton to vote $30,000 in bonds to build a new schoolhouse upon the site of the one burned not long since.

Mrs. Ona Belt died at the Baptist hospital in St. Louis Friday and her remains were taken to Norborne, where she was raised, for interment. She was 30 years old.

Martin Kassens, Jr., of Norborne met with a painful accident Saturday. The index finger of his left hand was cut off in some way while playing with other children.

Jubilee services were held in the M. E. church in Carrollton last Sunday over the recent liquidation of indebtedness against the church and the prosperity of the year.

"John Frizzell vs. A. J. Street" is the title of a new suit filed in the circuit court at Carrollton for $10,000 damages. The plaintiff charges the defendant with alienating the affections of the plaintiff's wife.

Carrollton has an organization called the "Men's club of the Presbyterian church." It is not sectarian, narrow or theological. It meets at the Presbyterian church once a month, but for what purpose the Democrat doesn't say.

MARRIAGES.

Alonzo M. Hicks and Miss Ella Heisinger, both of near Norborne.

HOWARD.

The combination stock sale at Fayette Thursday was well attended and stock brought good prices.

J. R. Tatum has sold his drugstore at Glasgow to Dr. W. R. Hawkins and the latter's brother, Homer.

The city council of Fayette at a recent meeting granted the Missouri Central Electric Railway Co. the right-of-way through the city.

Chas. Hocker, col., of Fayette pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace, having beaten his wife, in Judge Thompson's court Saturday and was given 30 days in jail.

Mrs. E. D. Watson, wife of the Southern Methodist pastor at Glasgow, was honored with a birthday feast and presents by a score of the parishioners Monday evening.

Governor Dockery's administration was endorsed by Howard county Democrats Monday of last week while assembled at Fayette as delegates from the several townships to elect delegates to the congressional convention held at Sedalia yesterday.

The young man, who gave his name as A. P. Harris and swindled C. P. Ray of New Franklin out of a pair of mules by giving a worthless check therefor then fled from the county, was captured at Montgomery City one day last week where he had swindled a widow out of a pair of mules for which he gave a check on a Macon bank for $400, but fortunately was found out and captured before he got out of town. A New Franklin officer went to Montgomery and identified the man, but the Montgomery people will not permit the scamp to come to Howard county until they are through with him.

Judge B. N. Tanner of Boonslick lost a calf suddenly which he could not find after a diligent and continuous search. One night he dreamed that the missing animal was under a strawstack. He related his dream the next morning while at breakfast, telling his wife and sons he had found the calf. They laughed at him, but the judge was insistent and on going to the strawstack and removing a quantity of straw he found the calf in a badly dilapidated condition, but still alive. It had rubbed the hair and skin off one side and hip. It is now improving rapidly and will live.

Robert G. Beazley, a native of Brunswick, but who had been in the mercantile business for several years at Brunswick, Salisbury and Fayette, died in Fayette March 17 after a protracted spell of sickness in his 56th year. He was married Sept. 4, 1873, to Miss Sarah Elizabeth Dines, daughter of the late Rev. Tyson Dines, and a sister to Tyson S. Dines, a prominent lawyer of Denver, Colo. Deceased was one of nature's noblemen, beloved and honored by an extensive acquaintanceship. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn the loss of a beloved husband and father. Mrs. R. F. Keeley of Moberly is the eldest daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Charles Fisher Barron and Miss Anna Belle McCrary, both of Howard county.

LINN.

Browning is out of debt and has $1,476.07 in the treasury.

Mrs. Maggie J. Sharp, a widow of near Laclede, died Saturday in her 58th year.

We regret to learn that Dr. E. F. Perkins of Linneus has been greatly afflicted of late with rheumatism.

The Herald speaks of ghost walks, cake walks, people walks and various other kinds of walks, of walks, but says that the latest pattern for walks in Bucklin is granitoid sidewalks.

A young named named Mac Thurlow of near Purdin, who has been insane for several years, caused by sickness, recently became violent and has been sent to the county infirmary.

There is a call in the Linneus papers for a meeting of the people to nominate a city ticket without reference to politics in order that needed improvements may be made for the city's good.

Eddie Whitley, a 12-year-old boy, was fatally injured by falling from a train on which he was jumping while it was on the switch at Laclede Monday. He had an older brother killed in the same way eight years ago.

Judge Howell, the farmer living near Brookfield who is being held on a charge of murder in the first degree for killing the boy, Vernon Brown, some weeks since, will not have a preliminary trial. He is out on bond to appear before the may term of circuit court at Linneus.

The school board at Bröwning, finding that an eight-months' school could not be continued and leave sufficient money in the treasury to pay a bond for $1,000, shortened the term one month, whereupon four young ladies, constituting the graduating class, packed their books and bade their teachers and school-room good-bye and walked out. Their action was intended as a protest against the ruling of the board.

Wednesday night when North Missouri was enveloped in a dense fog, migrating geese, ducks and brants were attracted by electric lights and flew so close to the ground at Linneus and other points that the nimrods were called from their slumbers to shoot them, but with rather poor success. They thought at Linneus that 100 birds had been killed there, but when they were gathered them up the next morning only four brants could be found.

"C. O. Thrash vs. Livingston county" is the style of a suit taken on change of venue from Livingston to Linn county, and will be called at the October term of circuit court. The suit is brought to recover money upon 17 warrants issued by the county court of Livingston, dated 1890, which had been presented for payment and endorsed "no funds!" Payment is resisted on the claim that the warrants are void and invalid because issued after the revenues of Livingston county for 1890 had been exhausted by the county court and also because of the statute of limitation.

MARRIAGES.

Albert L. Lewis and Miss Anna Maher, both of Brookfield.

Edward E. Brisswell and Miss Mara V. Olson, both of Grantsville.

LIVINGSTON.

John Cochran has opened a new cigar factory in Chillicothe.

Mrs. Isaac Ashby of Jackson township died Thursday night, aged 86 years.

J. A. Graves was fined $5 and costs in the police court at Chillicothe for a plain drunk.

The nose of Floyd Runyer, a normal student at Chillicothe, was mashed even with his face Saturday by a baseball.

Two negroes, members of the Wabash ballast gang, were fined $1, each, and costs for being drunk in Chillicothe Wednesday.

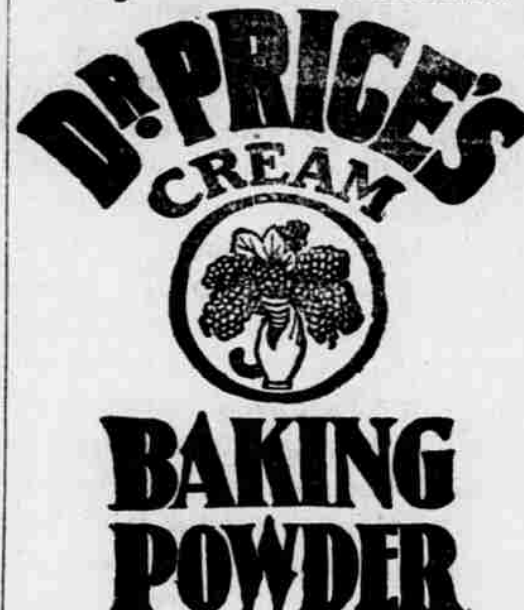

Harrison Hughes, for 66 years a resident of Livingston county, died at his home, two miles north of Chillicothe, Wednesday, aged 68 years.

Joseph Custer, a resident of Livingston county since 1838, died of general debility at his home, near Bedford, Friday in his 80th year.

The special election to decide about the contract system to work the roads in Chillicothe township came off Tuesday and resulted in the defeat of the proposition by a vote of 110 to 50.

Edward L. Kerns, a former resident of Livingston county, committed suicide in Kansas City Friday morning by shooting himself in the head with a pistol.

Fifty Years the Standard

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO. CHICAGO

The body was taken to his old home for interment.

G. H. Perryman's residence in Chillicothe was visited by a burglar Monday night, who did not effect an entrance, for the reason that Perryman discovered him in time to exchange shots with him and run him off. The burglar is believed to be a local crook.

A. P. Showers, who for five years past has been secretary of the Building & Loan association at Chillicothe, is charged with embezzlement to the amount of $6,500. Mr. Showers denies the truth of the allegation. He is backed by a Guaranty Bond company, so that if Mr. Showers should be proven guilty the association will lose nothing.

John G. Miller, the piano dealer who left his home in Chillicothe some weeks since and had not returned, and was supposed to have been killed at Pond Creek, Oklahoma, a dead body having been found there thought to have been his, turned up alive and well at Huntsville Friday. His parents had mourned him as dead.

MACON.

George H. Kealy of Bevier died Wednesday, aged 38 years.

Nicholas Dicher of near Calao died Sunday, aged 84 years.

Mrs. Catharine Mapes of Ten Mile died Friday in her 69th year.

Wm. Hinkle, an aged and respected citizen of Ten Mile, died Friday.

While opening a coal bank at Cox last week John McGee and Frank Cox dug into a den of snakes and killed 121 of the reptiles.

Shirley and Virgil Waddill of Middle Fork dug 16 black snakes out of the ground Sunday, the smallest being two feet long and the largest seven feet in length.

Conductors and train crews of the Burlington railway were called into police court at Bevier last week to account for their negligence in allowing trains to obstruct street crossings for a longer time than the ordinances permit.

"Mary L. Davis vs. John Begole" was the title of a cause called for trial in the circuit court at LaPlata last week. The plaintiff claimed $4,500 as damages for breach of promise of marriage. The case was compromised by the defendant paying $250 and permitting the plaintiff to keep the engagement ring.

Miss Lyda A. Potter of St. Charles had to meet her sick fiancé at Harris' Prairie, Callaway county, and one day last week called for a ticket over the M., K. & T. railway to Mokane, a nearby station to Harris' Prairie. The ticket agent gave her a ticket to Macon instead and the lady never discovered the mistake until she arrived at Macon. She was to have been married that day. She said that she told the agent that Mokane was in Callaway, but he said he knew where it was and gave her a ticket to Macon. Communication was opened over the long-distance telephone and satisfactory explanation given for the absence of the expectant bride.

MARRIAGES.

G. C. Brundage and Miss Lula Chinn, both of Ethel.

Pearl Hall and Miss Nannie Wood, both of Macon.

Chas. Turner and Miss Avid Yocum, both of Bevier.

John Marshall and Miss Dora Hook, both of Ardmore.

George Brown and Miss Emma Murry, both of Ardmore.

Lewis F. Wilson and Miss Tillie F. Curry, both of LaPlata.

John M. Taylor of Salisbury and Miss Daphne Sharp of Calao.

Orville Nash and Miss Maude H. Morgan, both of East Atlanta.

Daniel Tate of Atlanta and Miss Hester B. Grugin of Bloomington.

Andrew Remhart of Bevier and Miss Mary John of Clinton county, Ills.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Levy Steely of near Oakland schoolhouse died Friday.

Mrs. J. W. Brogan of Cairo died Tuesday night after a protracted illness.

Wm. Jones, an employe of Stevenson's marble works in Moberly, recently lost an eye as a result of lagrippe.

Nathaniel R. McKnight, a prominent citizen of near Huntsville, died Sunday, after a brief illness, in his 66th year.

A coal miner named Kincaid, employed in the Kimberly mines, was painfully injured Thursday about the head and back.

A revival meeting began in the Methodist church at Huntsville last Sunday at which Rev. E. D. Watson of Glasgow is doing the preaching.

J. F. Heath of Moberly caught Chas. Embree while burglarizing his house Thursday night. Embree was turned over to the proper officer for trial.

The proposition to vote bonds of the city of Huntsville to macadamize the streets carried Saturday by a vote of 243 to 61. Huntsville is a live town.

Huntsville was visited by a severe hailstorm Monday evening, which did considerable damage to window lights and other things of minor importance. W. T. Heathman of south of town had a barn blown down and a horse killed.

Mrs. Virginia Bachert of Moberly has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Geo. W. Bachert. She avers habitual drunkenness, gambling, spending his time in saloons, indifferent and cruel treatment as the causes of her proceeding.

June 2, 1902, Miss Scottie Green lost her purse at the Union station in Moberly, containing $1.05 in money, some calling cards and other trinkets. She said nothing about it, not even to her parents. After nearly two years she was greatly surprised to receive her purse and contents through the mails.

The pupils and teachers in the public schools of Moberly have the work completed that is to be sent to the world's fair. It was on exhibition in the Central school building last week before it was sent to the fair. The work consisted of manual training, wood work, sewing, weaving, raffia, bead work and all kinds of manuscript and drawing.

A good story is told by the Clifton Hill Rustler on Gene Stamper, who is small of stature. He was digging a hole for a telephone pole, and to see whether he had reached the desired depth he just dropped himself into it and when there discovered that he could not get out. He called lustily for help, and the first that came to his assistance was a young lady who brought an ax with her. By that time a man chanced that way and he on one side and the lady on the other with a strong pull succeeded in getting the young man out.

Joe Maynetti, an Italian coal miner at Higbee, was murdered by George Colley Saturday night. Maynetti was celebrating his birthday anniversary at his home with some friends. Colley, who was drunk, gained entrance to the house and raised a disturbance. Maynetti put him out and as he turned to join his friends Colley fired four times at him with a pistol. Two shots took effect, one in the heart, which produced instant death. Colley then made his escape, but was captured later at his father's residence, near Higbee, Saturday night and is now in jail at Huntsville.

MARRIAGES.

Ernest Pattison and Miss Bessie Shearer, both of Moberly.

Weber K. Woods and Miss Rosa Bell Koehn, both of Moberly.

SALINE.

John Limes of 15 miles south of Marshall died Monday.

James A. Calvert of Marshall died Thursday in his 32nd year.

Mrs. Fannie Harrison of Marshall died Thursday in her 82nd year.

Mrs. Rose Schneckberger of near Saline City, aged 76 years, died Monday.

James Bailey, who settled in Saline county 48 years ago, died Saturday, aged 75 years.

Perry Wilson's store at Malta Bend was robbed Monday night. Mostly canned goods were taken.

Samuel Gilliam of Cambridge township sold a span of mules last week to Reed & Duran of Slater for $330.

John Beck, aged 83 years, a well-known citizen of Saline county, died at Miami Sunday of a cancerous affection.

Col. Vincent Marmaduke, brother of the late Gov. John S. Marmaduke, died in Marshall at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. Harrison, Friday.

In the criminal court at Marshall last week the bond of Peter Richey, held for shooting R. S. Ireland, was declared forfeited. The bond called for $2,500.

The Saline county bar at a recent meeting unanimously endorsed Judge John A. Rich of Slater to succeed himself as criminal judge of the Fifteenth judicial circuit.

The clothing store of Louis Feis of Slater was broken into Sunday night and two coats, one pair of pants, three shirts and a pair of shoes were stolen. No clue to the burglar.

MARRIAGES.

James M. Hyde of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Cynthia A. Hyde of Kansas City.

Solomon Michael and Miss Myrtle Ham, both of Sugar Tree.

Lester Driskell and Miss Ella Miller, both of Mt. Leonard.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at W. C. Gaston's drugstore.